Philippians 3:10-14 / 2 Timothy 4:6-8

I want to know Christ and the power that raised Him from the dead. I want to share in His sufferings and become like Him in his death.

Then I have hope that I myself will be raised from the dead.

It's not that I've already reached the goal or have already completed the course.

But I run to win that which Jesus Christ has already won for me.

Brothers, I know that I have not yet reached that goal, but there is one thing I always do.

This is what I do: I don't look back, I lengthen my stride, and I run straight toward the goal to win the prize that God's heavenly call offers in Christ Jesus.

As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near.

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

And now the prize awaits me — the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of His return.

And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to His appearing.
